Collateral Requirements:

- Language Study: Global Studies majors are required to complete the equivalent of six semesters of language study in a language other than English. This requirement can be fulfilled using credits from high school AP language tests reported to Lehigh's registrar, from courses taken at Lehigh, from courses taken elsewhere, or some combination of these. It may be fulfilled all in one language (advanced level), or by studying the equivalent of four semesters of one language and an additional two semesters of a second language.
- Study abroad: 12 credits of study abroad. A lower number of study abroad credits and/or coursework can be substituted, with the guidance of an adviser, if student is financially or academically unable to fulfill the requirement. Courses taken during study abroad may be counted toward satisfaction of major requirements with adviser approval.
