Lehigh has a major collection of 19th century buildings designed by such prominent architects as Addison Hutton (1834-1916), Edward T. Potter (1831-1904), and the firm of Furness and Evans (Frank Furness, 1839-1912).

Designed by Dagit Saylor Architects just east of the Rauch Business Center is the Zoellner Arts Center, which houses a 1,000-seat music auditorium, a 300-seat theatre, a permanent art gallery and museum store, and the departments of music and theatre. A 350-car parking garage is on the same site.

Opened in 2002, and designed by the AIA award-winning architectural firm of Bohlin Cywinski Jackson, is the Campus Square residential and retail complex with upperclass student apartments, bookstore, and various eateries.

Recently completed are campus enhancements that eliminated vehicular traffic and created landscaped walkways in the historic core of the Asa Packer Campus. Recently opened is a 350-car parking garage pavilion and visitors arrival court at the west entrance to the Alumni Memorial Building.

Altogether, the three campuses contain more than 160 buildings with more than 4.5 million square feet of floor space.
