The International Center for Academic and Professional English (ICAPE) at Lehigh University offers a variety of year-round courses (<https://global.lehigh.edu/icafe/credit-courses/>), language/culture workshops (<https://global.lehigh.edu/icafe/workshops/>), language testing (<https://global.lehigh.edu/icafe/testing-services/>), and private tutoring (<https://global.lehigh.edu/icafe/tutoring/>) for undergraduate and graduate students who would like to improve their academic English skills and their understanding of American pragmatics and culture.

UNDERGRADUATE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT COURSES FOR CREDIT

Based on language test scores and an English placement test, undergraduate students who are non-native speakers of English (and those who speak varieties of English other than standard American English) may be required to register for ENGL 003 and ENGL 005 (Composition and Literature for International Writers I and II) as their required first-year English composition courses. These two courses, taken consecutively in the Fall and Spring semesters, are designed specifically with multilingual writers of English in mind, and they can substitute for ENGL 001 and ENGL 002 general composition courses.

*Successful completion of ENGL 003 fulfills the same first-year requirement as ENGL 001. NOTE: If a student is awarded credit for ENGL 001 by RAS, that student will not receive additional credit for taking ENGL 003.

*Successful completion of ENGL 005 fulfills the same first-year requirement as ENGL 002. NOTE: If a student is awarded credit for ENGL 002 by RAS, that student will not receive additional credit for taking ENGL 005.

ENGL 016 (Recitation Session for Critical Reading and Composition) and ENGL 017 (Recitation for Research and Argument) are additional 1-credit support seminars that will help students succeed in ENGL 001, 002, 003, and 005.

Multilingual English-speaking students who need additional focused practice to help them improve their academic English language skills may be required to register for ENGL 015 (Speech Communication for International Speakers) and/or ESLP 003 (Intelligibility and Comprehensibility in English).

GRADUATE & PROFESSIONAL ENGLISH (ESLP) COURSES FOR CREDIT

Based on language test scores and graduate department requirements, graduate students who are non-native speakers of English (and those who speak varieties of English other than standard American English) may be required to register for courses in academic writing, speaking & listening, and advanced academic presentations offered in both Fall and Spring semesters. These courses include ESLP 001 (Academic Writing and Grammar), ESLP 002 (Academic Writing and Reading for Research), ESLP 003 (Intelligibility and Comprehensibility in English), ESLP 004 (Advanced Academic Speaking), and/or ESLP 011 (Technical Writing and Composition).

STEPUP INTENSIVE ENGLISH PROGRAM FOR NON-CREDIT

The StepUp Program is a rigorous, non-credit English program for admitted as well as non-admitted Lehigh students who choose to, or are required to, improve their English skills while taking or prior to taking credit courses at Lehigh University. The StepUp program enhances students' English skills in advanced academic reading and writing, spoken academic language, and American pragmatics through intensive practice, integrated skills focus, and experiential learning on campus. StepUp also serves as an excellent orientation to the Lehigh University culture and the expectations of a university classroom. StepUp courses may fulfill requirements for conditionally admitted students.
